Doval Expected to Visit Moscow in Feb for Afghanistan Dialogue

Dipayanjit Chaudhary
@intheopinion.com

New Delhi: National security adviser AK Doval is expected to visit Moscow next month for regional dialogue on Afghanistan. Doval will also hold consultations with his Russian counterpart Gen Nikolay Patrushev on the current state of conflict in Ukraine and the bilateral strategic partnership.

The dialogue, which besides India and Russia features France and Central Asian states, is critical for Afghanistan's future and its worsening economic and humanitarian situation. India hosted this dialogue in 2021 followed by Tajikistan in 2022. Last month, India also hosted Central Asian NSAs with a special focus on Afghanistan.

Antony Mum as Son Anil Resigns From All Party Posts

Our Political Bureau

New Delhi: Anil K Antony, son of Congress veteran AK Antony, resigned from party posts on Wednesday following differences with the Congress over its internal and regional issues regarding the situation in Afghanistan, energy sector reform, defence ties, and timber-fermentation and other issues.

Doval is expected to visit Moscow next month for regional dialogue on Afghanistan. Doval will also hold consultations with his Russian counterpart Gen Nikolay Patrushev on the current state of conflict in Ukraine and the bilateral strategic partnership.

BJP Keeps Focus on 'Scams' in Bengal; Goes All Out in Matua-dominated Areas

Jayanti Nag @intheopinion.com

Kolkata: The state leadership of the Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) is gearing up for the upcoming Panchayat elections by focusing on the alleged corruption by the ruling Trinamool Congress, sectors in the education sector and siphoning of funds from the prime minister's affordable housing scheme.

The state unit is going all out with campaigns and rallies in districts that have a predominantly Matua population and greater reach of the Trinamool party. Following BJP national president JP Nadda's visit to West Bengal, January 18, the state unit organised a road rally in Nadia district, a stronghold of the Matuas, who had been BJP's key vote bank during the last Lok Sabha polls.

The party's national executive committee member and state BJP president Subanta Majumdar roped in leader and sector-based politician Mitran Chakrabarty for a roadshow and public meeting in Begula in Nadia district. The state leadership has already held two regional outreach campaigns in South 24 Parganas district and Hooghly prior to the latest round.

During the campaigns, the BJP leadership has been raising issues related to the alleged corrupt practices by the Trinamool, including the scam in the education sector. It also highlights the issue of housing in areas in relation to the PM Awas Yojana funds, and focused jobs in the education sector.
